Hey Megan,

Attached is my signature on the email that I received from City Pages when they underwent a look at the reported filing for St. Jude.

Thanks!

Subject: Official Complaint

Complaint:

For Sandra Neren's St. Jude Medical Lobbyist Disbursement Report from 2012 to 2017 they have under Schedule D – officers and directors Angela Craig as VP of Corporate Relations. When City Pages a local media outlet looked into the filings the Craig campaign said this was a “clerical error.” Then City Pages reached out to Sandra Neren, she stated the same “clerical error” as Angela Craig had not been working with them for years.

Email from reporter attached.

- 1) How can there be a clerical error that a lobbyist has stated last for years when they have to certify that the report is complete, true and correct be wrong for years?
- 2) How can that party not have the corrected person listed as the Schedule D?
- 3) Who was the person that Sandra Neren reported to?

Both bodies reported that the SEC filing for St. Jude's Medical no longer had Angela Craig as their VP of Corporate Relations. Was the title of Angela Craig the filing mistake or was Sandra reporting to someone else?

In either and all cases, how have these reports been inaccurate for years without correction or amendments?

I, Michael Rosenow, would like to send a complaint on this filing.

Thanks for your time.

Ok, I spoke to Sandra Neren, and she also called it a clerical error. Angie was the person her firm reported to years ago, and they apparently never changed the filing.

These 10-Ks filed with the SEC also appear to be consistent with what Angie has said publicly about her various roles at St. Jude's. There's a brief narrative attached to the one from 2012, when she left the VP of Corporate Relations position.

Sorry, the lobbyist disbursement reports seemed like pretty compelling evidence, but there's also overwhelming evidence to suggest they were indeed mistakes.
